American Alternative Capital Expands Distribution Network Through New Partnership with CM Pacific Capital

Ann Arbor, Michigan — September 2, 2025 – American Alternative Capital (“AAC”), a leader in alternative investment distribution, is pleased to announce a new partnership with CM Pacific Capital, led by industry veteran Mike Crimmins. This relationship further strengthens AAC’s ability to provide financial professionals with access to diversified alternative investment strategies, including Delaware Statutory Trusts (DSTs) and real estate private placements.

Mr. Crimmins is the Founder and Chief Executive Officer of CM Pacific Capital, a multi-sponsor product distribution platform focused on delivering reputable DSTs and real estate private placements.

With more than two decades of leadership experience in the alternative investments industry, Mr. Crimmins previously served as CEO of KBS Capital Markets Group, LLC, where he oversaw a sales and marketing organization that raised over $7 billion for several offerings. He holds a BS in Business Administration and Finance from the University of Missouri, as well as Series 7, 24, and 63 licenses.

“Partnerships are at the heart of our business model, and we are excited to welcome Mike and CM Pacific Capital to our distribution network,” said Jason Kavanough, President of AAC. “His deep industry knowledge and track record of building successful teams align well with our commitment to supporting financial professionals and their clients.”

This new partnership reflects AAC’s continued focus on building long-term relationships and expanding its distribution capabilities through strategic collaborations with respected industry leaders.
