

American Alternative Capital Expands Team with Two Strategic Hires

September 2025 – American Alternative Capital (AAC) is pleased to announce the addition of two accomplished professionals, Parker Burrows and Steven “Henri” Henriksen, to its growing team. Their expertise reflects AAC’s continued commitment to operational excellence, due diligence, and client-focused solutions in the alternative investment space.

Parker Burrows – Operations Associate

Parker Burrows joins AAC as an Operations Associate, bringing four years of experience in financial operations at a large broker-dealer. His background includes asset transfers, client service, and process optimization, with a demonstrated passion for mentoring and team development. Parker holds Series 7 and 99 licenses and is pursuing additional registrations to broaden his professional capabilities. He graduated from the University of Michigan with a B.S. in Economics.

Steven “Henri” Henriksen – Due Diligence Officer / Supervisory Principal

Henri Henriksen joins AAC as a Due Diligence Officer and Supervisory Principal. With more than 30 years in the financial industry, Henri has held leadership roles across compliance, product development, distribution, and capital markets. His experience spans both Fortune 200 companies and start-ups, with exposure to a wide range of investment structures. Henri holds Series 7, 24, and 63 registrations and earned his B.S. in Business Management from Metropolitan State University.

“We are thrilled to welcome Parker and Henri,” said Jason Kavanaugh, President and CEO of American Alternative Capital. “Their diverse experience and shared commitment to operational rigor and client service will strengthen our ability to deliver thoughtful, well-structured solutions for financial professionals and their clients.”
